

Join Us for Riwo Sang-chö

Infusing Positive Energy into the Environment and Ourselves

Experience the profound wisdom of the Himalayas through Riwo Sang-chö, a sacred purification ritual of offering fragrant incense smoke, powerful visualizations, & chanting.

Sang, meaning "to purify," bestows blessings, purifies negative karma, & removes obstacles on both worldly & spiritual paths.

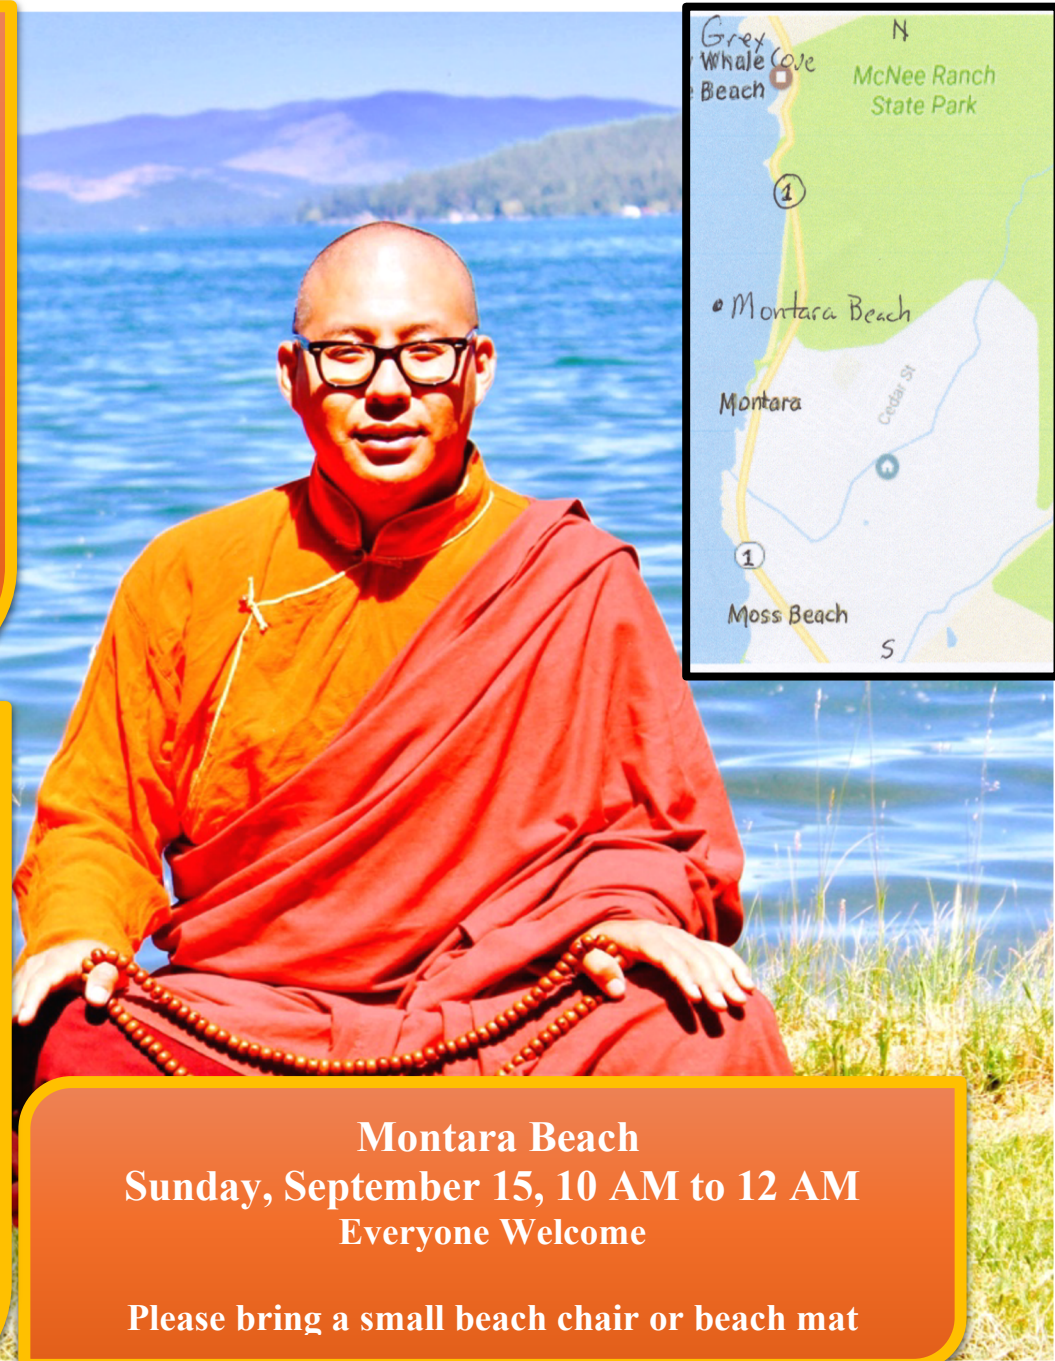

This Vajrayana practice of compassion & generosity, involving offerings to deities, spirits, & wisdom beings, fosters peace & harmony while fulfilling wishes & inviting positive energy into your life & surroundings.

The event will be led by Khenpo Namchak Dorji, a distinguished Vajrayana Buddhist teacher from Bhutan

Born into a family of tantric practitioners in Eastern Bhutan, Khenpo Namchak Dorji has been immersed in Buddhist teachings since childhood. He earned his Khenpo degree (Doctorate in Buddhist Philosophy) from the Nyingma Institute of Higher Buddhist Studies & Research Center in India.

Khenpo is a scholar, translator, & teacher with extensive experience in Vajrayana Buddhism, having taught in Bhutan, Nepal, India, & the US. He also oversees Long-nying Chöling Monastery in Bhutan & supports dharma centers in the United States, guiding serious practitioners on their spiritual path.
